PRESENTED BY

The Senior Class of

Dan River High School

RINGGOLD, VIRGINIA

A bird's eye view of that wonderful place where those years flew by much too swiftly.

Dedication

DAN RIVER HIGH SCHOOL June 2, 1951

Pay to the Order Of OUR PARENTS

OUR DEEPEST APPRECIATION

FOR ALL YOU'VE DONE.

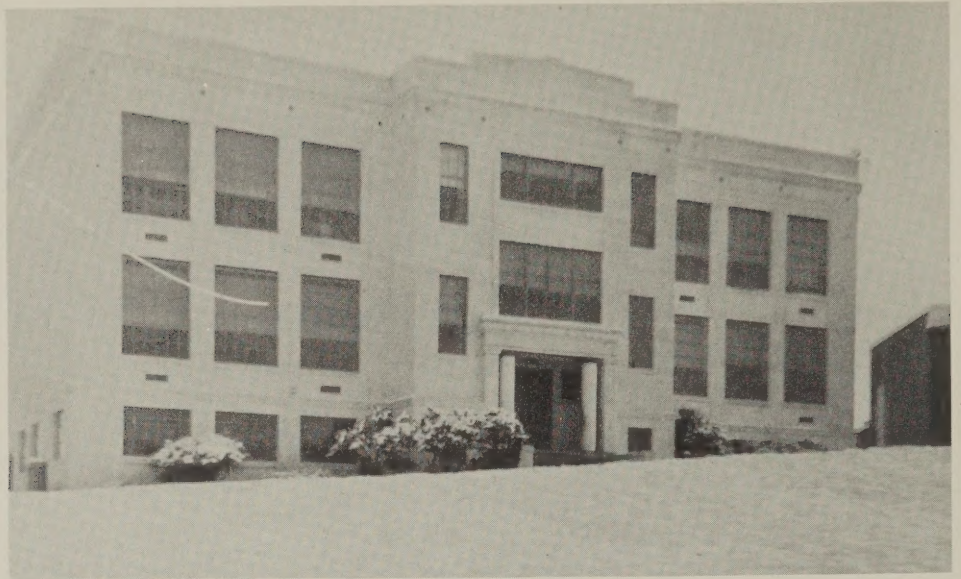

Senior Class

As we, the Senior Class of 1951, near the end of our happy days together at Dan River, we realize more than ever who made it possible for us to be where we are. So we take great pleasure in dedicating the annual "The Archway," 4th Edition, to our parents and sponsor, Miss Lois Callahan.

Our hearts are filled with gratitude for the love and consideration that have been given us, by our parents, whose kind and gentle hands have guided us, who shared our sorrows as well as our joys and who gave us a warm and welcoming home to always come back to.

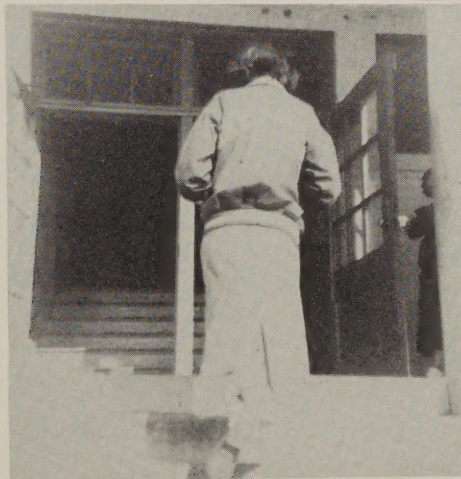

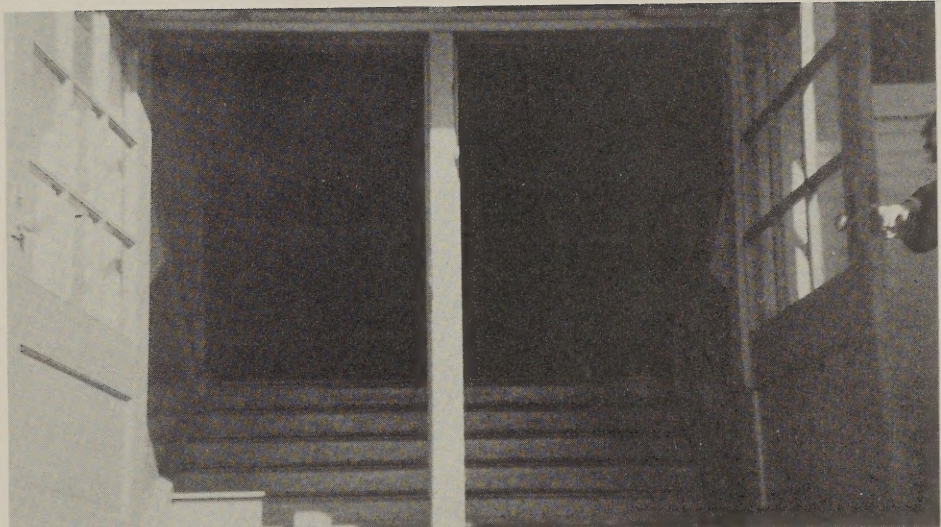

To Miss Callahan, whom we were so fortunate to have as our Senior sponsor, we are indeed grateful for the outstanding leadership and patience that has been shone us. Although she has only been with us our Junior and Senior years, she has become very dear to our hearts.

From the Senior Class to our parents and sponsor, "May you always have God's blessings because you deserve the best."

BETTY ANN MYERS

Here's to our little Betty Ann, who can always be counted upon for anything in the way of help and fun. She's proved herself to be the most outstanding through all her school years, in all activities. Along with all her scholastic honors and achievements, she's studious; she's serious; she's gay; she's alert; she's a party girl and a home girl, and she's lovable.

Who's Who

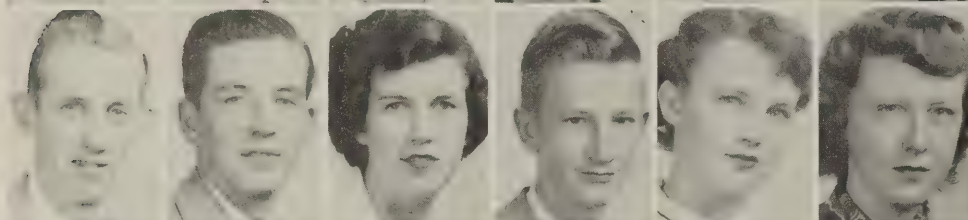

RUDOLPH ROBERTS

And here's Rudolph, with his quiet, but bright charm. He always has a helping hand for his classmates. Throughout all his school years he could be counted upon for his faithfulness. Good in sports, studies, organizations, and wonderful times. Rudolph's our man!

MISS DAN RIVER

OF 1968.

The Editors At Work

Book Three Activities

The Student Council members, advised by Miss Bonnie Jean Alderson, represent the leadership and guiding light of our school. Through this organization our school strives to climb the ladder of an enriched student life.

Beta Club

The Beta Club of Dan River, under the guidance of Frank W. Motley, is a non-secret organization based upon character, attitude, and scholastic record. It has as it's project for this year the placement of an electric bell in the Home Economics building.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club of Dan River is under the supervision of Frank W. Motley. This club's object is not only to study the language, but also to become acquainted with the laws and customs of the inhabitants of Spain and other countries that speak the Spanish tongue.

Glee Club

The Dan River Club is under the direction of Miss Nina Flora. The club has made a nice showing in several chapel programs; and gave its first public appearance, December 10th, in the County Christmas Festival of Music, which was held in Chatham.

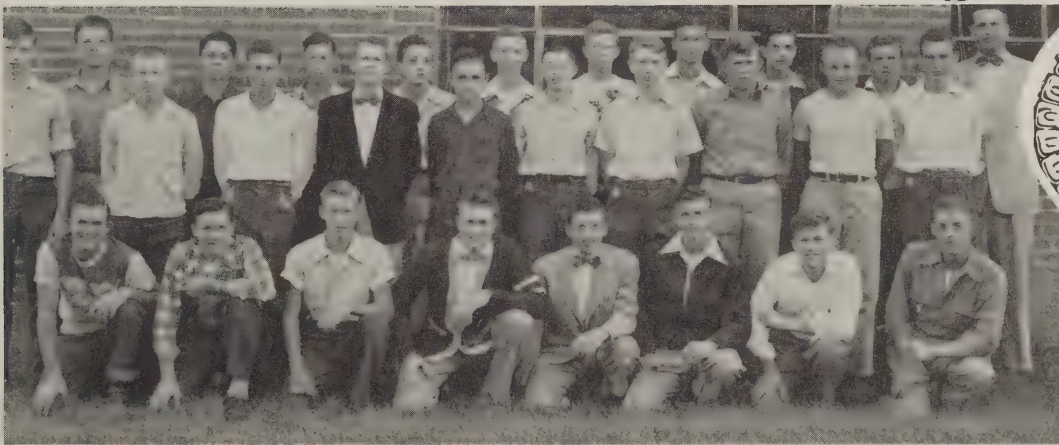

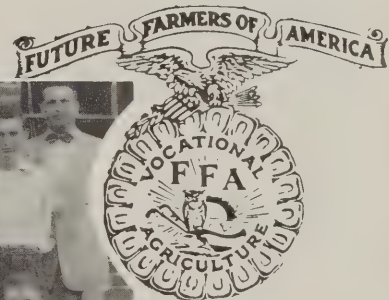

The Library Club, under the supervision of Miss Bonnie Jean Alderson, is an organization to arouse literary interest and appreciation of the work carried on in the school library.

Library Club

The ideals and purpose of the F. H. A., under the direction of Mary Hannah Jones, is to promote interest towards better home and family life. The F. H. A. brings together state groups interested in these ideals.

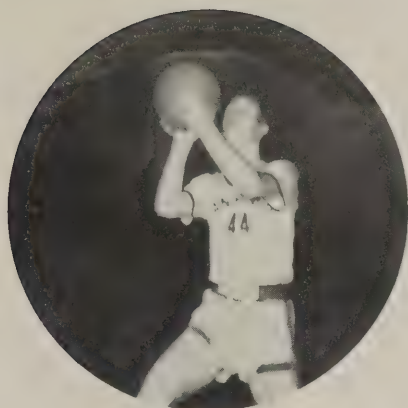

The Dan River Chapter of F. F. A. is under the supervision of C. Nelson Payne. Major objectives of the local chapter during the past three years have centered on school ground improvements. Among those the chapter has constructed concrete walkways, erected a flag pole, seeded and fertilized grass, and surfaced the parking lot.

Many federation contests have been entered with the chapter placed high in public speaking; the Degree team and Forestry judging.

"Loafers!!"

"Are there girls on those rafters?"

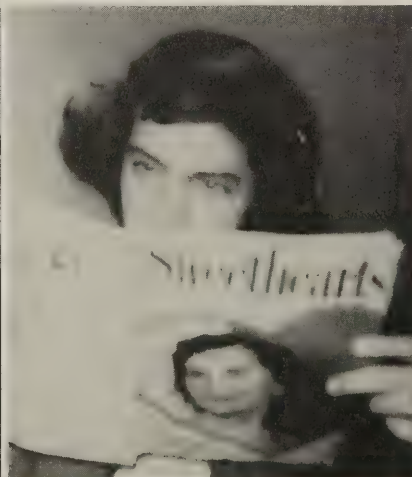

Going to church, Judy?

"That's what makes a good man leave home"

"Do you need an Armstrong Heater, Marie?"

"Destroyers of gay nights."

Miss Callahan teaches this favorite subject.

She walks in beauty.

"Lay it, Freddie!!"

"Cut it short!
Cut it short!"

Leon and Neal, you're missing half of life.

Too late now, but say is that what it takes?

I'll be moving on if you'll turn me loose.

"Slop call".

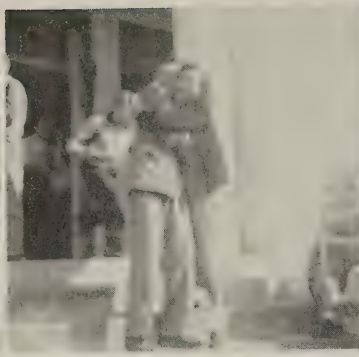

The origin of all our troubles

Sorry, there wasn't room, but we had to make it fit.

"Temptation, boys".

"That's the stuff."

"NEXT"

"That ain't Pete."

"Supple up, Anne."

"Faithful to his title"

Hen party.

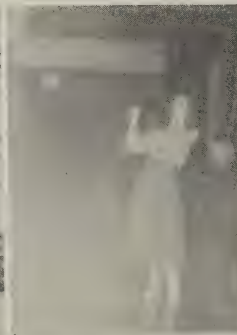

Did things get too hot?

"Dat ain't de way to sno' 'em, Judy."

What's that thing obstructing the beautiful snow scene?

Where did you lose your partners, Margie?

That's for being good girls.

I 'spect you deserve that, Bobby.

We got it once.

Class Prophecy

Upon receiving an invitation to a party at the ranch of Catherine Greene and Eldridge Compton, I started to leave home. Just as I turned out of my driveway my nerves were shattered by an awful noise behind me and as I looked back, it passed. Oh, for goodness sake! It's just Pete Marshall, still driving that 36 Chevrolet. By the time I calmed down I had reached my destination. The party was in full swing. Guests were crowded into the place. As I entered the front door I saw a group of people gathered around somebody. Well, what ya know! Leon Compton, a great light in the theatre now, was well lit as usual and he and Charlie McCarthy were having a time.

Leaving that group, my attention was drawn to Mary Frances Barker, seated at the piano, with her famous all-girl chorus gathered around her including Ruby Deboe, Margaret Blecher, Patsy Wright, and Jean Walker. This group of girls has become very popular while working with Rudolph Roberts and his circus. Just then, a puff of wind went by. Excuse me, that was only Ann Didlake and her All-American Cheer-leading Squad breezing by. After the noise died down, I strolled over to speak to Bobby Searce, who is now star first baseman for the Glenwood Dodgers. He was giving out free autographs for one daughter! As I left Bobby I heard a scream! My goodness, Kenneth Martin is still learning to dance. I believe he has sprained his ankle, oh well, nothing to get excited about because there goes Dr. Betty Ann Myers to the rescue. She now owns her own veterinary hospital in Onion Hollow. She never wastes over three days on one patient. At the end of that time, she sends them across the hill to R. H. Gunn, who is an undertaker in Stinkie Hollow. Joyce Hawker, still an old maid, is his right hand man. Chief embalmer is Jane Claude. Eunice Newcomb and Barbara Gibson drive his ambulances while Rachel drives the hearse and Dorothy Compton the family car.

Turning around I bumped into Curtis Murphy and learned that he is still driving the school bus and now has five of his own. They are being operated by Wiley Guill, Farold Kuykendall, Bobby Hill, Thomas Walters, and Marie Layne. By the way, I hear that Marie is engaged.

I was surprised to learn that Barbara Barker is a famous model in New York, Andrew Salmon being her manager. I think Mr. Motley is giving Andrew a little trouble. Ann Dixon is employed at the Belk-Leggett Co.

On one of my trips around the room I stopped by a table loaded with delicious B-B Bats, and found out that they came from the Wilson Factory, owned and operated by Jesse Wilson. Hazel Tate and Nancy Richardson are employed at the Wilson Factory. Mildred Doolin is now a basketball coach and Carolyn Neathery is the star player on her team.

Loretta Hodnett is running a sewing shop in Glenwood, working with her are Barbara Talbard, Jean Henderson, and Blanche Dodson. They make men's suits only. Oh! Here comes Faye East. She holds a position with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Kentucky, Virginia. Watson Compton is now working with her on a very important case. It seems that someone is trying to keep Judith Shields from publishing her daily magazine "How To Be An Old Maid."

While talking to Faye a knock was heard at the door. It was a beggar and everyone felt sorry for the poor soul, so we all gave him at least a penny and even invited him in to share the monotony with us, only to find out that it was Garnett Hutcherson. After a friendly chat with him I started across the room, when I noticed a smartly dressed lady. Drawing nearer I discovered that it was Janice Bray, now married to the manager of Raylass' Department Store.

I was sorry to learn that Mildred Boyd had to leave early, but Tiny Arnold, Mildred's nurse, came with dreadful news. Somehow her husband had escaped from the attic of their home.

About that time the waitresses, Hallie Ann Terry and Lois Davis, passed around delicious drinks. I learned that they came from the dairy farm of Billy Bennett and Ray Tate. After giving a toast, I drank my milk and started out of the door when, Miss Lois Callahan, who was so fortunate to have been our sponsor staggered in. I know by that time it must be getting pretty late, so I hurried home to help Charles finish the dishes.

"THE THING"

A girl you'd like to know

THE WAY she speaks tells you that she is a girl you'd like to know. She's poised and competent . . . friendly and helpful . . . and she's very anxious to serve you in giving good telephone service.

It's quite possible you do know her. She may live just around the corner. She might even have gone to your school. Now right through the year, she gives a good account of herself in an important job at the Telephone Company.

She's the girl with that famous voice — "The Voice with a Smile." And that means, of course, that she is your cheerful telephone operator.
